Q. WHAT IS THE POST?

The Gallagher Post www.gallagherpost.com is an online megaportal. It is intended to be a gateway to online resources for all constituencies of the Church.

Q. HOW WILL I BENEFIT FROM USING THE POST?

Our goal is to make it easy for you to find people and tools that connect your work, ministry or research with our resources—areas of focus include property, casualty insurance, health benefits and healthcare reform, institutional investments and pensions, human resource management, alternative risk financing, et al. In addition, webinar recordings, training modules, white papers, instant connection to people and discussion boards are among the many modalities of media we intend to populate this “megamall” site. In preparation of the site, we have identified more than 65 positions, including “volunteer,” teacher and clergy, as audiences we intend to allow having auto sign-in capabilities.

Q. WHY IS GALLAGHER DEVELOPING THE POST?

Gallagher’s Religious Practice conducted a survey in the Winter of 2010 asking diocesan fiscal, risk management and human resource officers about their needs for managing risk, people and assets. One of the resounding recommendations was an encouragement for Gallagher to find ways to make resources for the Church easy to access. This site is not intended to replace the many sites you visit now, but rather serve as a seamless aggregator to the many resources you need daily and may want in the future.

Q. WHAT IS THE TIMELINE OF DEVELOPMENT?

Preparation for the Gallagher Post “Launch” at DFMC has been underway since May 2010, when we identified Gallagher Bassett’s Consulting Division to serve as general contractor for development, in partnership with the Religious Practice Group at Gallagher. We expect to use our “Flight”—October through December timeframe—to garner further feedback and solidify our “Landing” and deployment in January 2011. Initially, we are focused on mapping all the resources within the Gallagher Group of Companies to give you easy access to information. In 2011, we intend to reach out to partners and other service providers in an effort to create efficient links to another level of resources and people.

Q. HOW DO I CONTACT “THE POST”?

On the home page you will see a “contact THE POST” tab.
